There is the story of a pastor who got up one Sunday and announced to the congregation: 'I have good news and bad news. The good news is, we have enough money to pay for our new building program. The bad news is, it's still out there in your pockets.'

As United Methodists, we pledge to support our church with our prayers, our presence, our gifts, and our service. Each of these is equally important to the life of the church, and each one is like a coin we hold in our pockets. As we celebrate our Harvest Festival this year, I urge you to consider the "coins" you "hold" in your "pockets."

Prayers – One of the most powerful things we can do for any situation, person, or institution is to pray. When we support our church with our prayers, we ask God to reveal to us His will for our congregation, and the ways that we as a congregation are best suited to accomplish His will for us. A regular, active prayer life engaged in by the people of a congregation will produce unbelievable blessings for a church!

Presence – Our time is one of the most valuable assets we have. In today's hectic world, it seems as though there isn't enough time in a day, a week, a month, or a year. Sometimes, I have to remind myself to take time to breathe—do you? Giving your time to be present in worship on Sunday, or in Sunday school, or helping with an event at church, or supporting an event with your attendance, is a great gift that only you can give.

Gifts—As diverse members of the body of Christ, God has given us each different gifts, with the intent that we will come together as one body and use our varied gifts to accomplish God's work in the world. All gifts are given by God, and all gifts are used by God when we are willing servants. When we use our gifts for the sake of the church, we join together with our sisters and brothers to complement each other's talents in order that, as a complete body, we praise God by using what he has given us for the benefit of others.

*Service—A congregation can only accomplish its mission in the world if its people are willing to serve. Jesus himself gave us the most true and complete picture of what service looks like—service to God and service to other people. By following Jesus' example of servant leadership, we can be to our congregation, to our community, and to the world, the hands and feet of Christ. There isn't any greater honor we can receive, than to someday hear God's words spoken to us, "Well done, my good and faithful servant."

Each one of us has been given a slightly different "currency," but all are meant to be taken out of our pockets and placed into the "offering plate" of opportunity that God places before us. If you leave your "coins" in your pockets, you can make a lovely jingling sound—but if you take the "coins" out of your pocket and use them to build up God's church (listen closely now!) you will hear all of heaven rejoicing!

Shalom,
Pastor Em

WORSHIP

October is one of those months in which we celebrate many things. We begin the month with World Communion Sunday, during which we joyfully recognize that Christians all over the world sit at Christ's table with us this day. On October 12, we will have our Harvest Festival, celebrating God's good gifts to us. October 19TH is Laity Sunday, in which celebrate the many gifts and graces of the laity. On October 26, we close the month by recognizing United Methodist Men's Day, as we celebrate the contributions of men to the life of the church.

October 5: World Communion
Scripture: John 6:23-40
Message: A Feast for the World

Description: Jesus calls himself the Bread of Life, sent by God to give eternal life to all who believe in him. On this day, we celebrate at Christ's table with believers from all over the world, knowing that neither the language we speak, the color of our skin, our age, our income level, nor any other difference between us is more important than the love of Christ we share.

October 12: Harvest Festival

Scripture: Deuteronomy 26:1-11

Message: With Thankfulness and Joy

Description: The ancient Israelites were commanded by God to bring the first fruits of their harvest in the Promised Land, and offer them in thanksgiving for God's blessings. We, too, bring our first fruits on this day and rejoice because of the blessings that God has given us.

October 19: Laity Sunday

Our lay leader, Charles West, will be leading worship as we celebrate the role of laity in the life of the church, as we offer our appreciation to those who lead and participate in ministries in our church.

October 26

Scripture: Psalm 112

Message: The Measure of a Man

Description: Today the United Methodist Church recognizes United Methodist Men's Day. We celebrate the gifts and graces of men of God, who bring blessings to their families, friends and communities as they devote themselves to the service of our Lord.

Worship Team

October promises to be a very special month. We will be observing World Wide Communion Sunday on Oct. 5th and Harvest Festival on Oct. 12th. We are so pleased that Roy Mc Kinley will be able to share his musical talent with us on the 12th.

The Audio-Visual Project is progressing. We have a local Specialist who will be doing the necessary re-wiring and moving the cables and equipment to the back of the sanctuary. We have been observing how other churches have constructed their control desks and have found some good models for our own use. Thanks to some generous donators, we do have the funds to move ahead with the first phase of this project. We can hardly wait to get started.

Sunday School News

We celebrated Promotion Sunday on Sept. 7th. Now is a good time to consider attending Sunday School (no lunch boxes required). We offer classes for everyone. Mariellen Smith is teaching our Pre-Schoolers. Judy Baker teaches the Elementary Class [K—6th grades]. Susan Grube teaches the Youth Class [7th—12th grades]. There are two adult classes taught by Donna Spearman and Fred Grube. All classes run from 10 A.M. to 10:45 A.M. each Sunday. Join us for fun, conversation, and Christian growth in the Bible.

Congratulations

has graduated from Grant Medical Center’s program for Paramedic Certification. We, along with his family, are proud of his accomplishments.

Thanks to Neil Shoemaker for all his work on replacing the old windows in the Sunday School section of our building. He has replaced 20+ windows and the new ones look wonderful and will add in our efforts to cut costs from fuel expenses.

Angel Food Ministries

Thanks to the dedicated efforts of our site manager, Debbie Retherford, along with numerous volunteers, we continue to offer quality food for families in our church and community at discount prices. A basic box costs $30 and contains about $60 worth of food. Anyone can order without regard to income level. We can all benefit from this program.

We were able to share information about this new ministry at the District Community Ministries Fair that Pastor Em, John Palmer and Judy Baker recently attended. Good things are happening.

Croton UMC Recipient of Cash Awards

I'm pleased to announce that we have received two grants from Community Ministries for two projects in 2009. The first is a $3,000.00 capital improvement grant to replace our final, aging furnace. The second is a $1,000.00 grant for our second annual Full Throttle Rock Rush concert to be held this coming April.

Community Ministries is funded through apportionments. It is a support organization that represents a joint effort of Capital Area North and South Districts of the West Ohio Conference. This organization helps churches in the two Columbus-area districts to identify mission and ministry opportunities in local communities. It also provides workshops, grants, and many other services to help others.

Pastor Em

With all the political and social turmoil going on these days, it's almost easy to forget all the benefits we enjoy as citizens of this great Nation. However, we must not allow confusion, frustration, and anger to control our emotions, deflate our national pride, or deter our Christian hope.

To this end, allow me to share the wisdom of Cardinal James Gibbons with you: "I have lived eighty-six years. I have watched men climb up to success, hundred of them, and of all the elements that are important for success, the most important is faith. No great thing comes to anyone unless he or she has courage."
